Third Sunday of Easter (5th May 2019)

The post resurrection experience of Peter with Jesus that is described in today's Gospel – where Jesus asks Peter if he loves him, re-affirms Peter, "Feed my Lambs". Perhaps you hear Jesus asking you those same words – "Feed my Lambs". Is God calling you to serve as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? REFLECTION
Exploring Facts in the Apostles' Creed
Fact 8: ...I believe in the Holy Spirit.

It is the Holy Spirit who, since the very beginning, fills creation. It is the Holy Spirit who spoke through the prophets. It is the Holy Spirit through whom Mary became the Mother of God. It is the Holy Spirit who descended upon Jesus at the baptism in the Jordan. It is the Holy Spirit who freed the disciples from their fear at Pentecost. It is the Holy Spirit who brings the divine into the Church. It is the Holy Spirit who makes me a dwelling place of God.

Nobody has seen the Holy Spirit. But you can feel him. The bible describes him in many powerful images: He is mighty like fire, gentle like a dove, captivating like a storm, soft like a light murmuring sound. The fruits of the Holy Spirit are: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Trustfulness, Gentleness and Self-Control. We can see the working of the Holy Spirit in the joy, the courage and the strength that he gives. The Holy Spirit inspires us with good ideas and urges us to carry them out. At times he is like fire that lets us burn for the good. Other times we feel him in our conscience: "Do something! Help! Interfere!" And another time he is like a silent guest who lives in our soul, changes us from within and makes us new people. In the words of Bishop Desmond Tutu (b.1931) Kindness will win, compassion will win, laughter will win. We are made for goodness. We are made for love.

Brought to you by the Diocesan Pastoral Council.
